A charming collection Jemima Puddle-Duck storys. This book contains watercolors from Miss Potter's original little books. The original text is also included. This book's illustrations are very pleasing for the children as they enjoy the details. The stories each have a moral that is appropriate to young children. This book could be used with young students in a reading session. It would likely be enjoyed most in a one-to-one reading time, with the child holding the book.
