Men always have a lot to say, and that's particularly true when it comes to getting older. As Don Marquis put it, "We look forward to a disorderly, vigorous, unhonored and disreputable old age." After all – to quote George Mead this time – "No pain, no pain." As philosophies go, that one does have a certain unbeatable directness about it.

In this collection of wonderful quotes and jokes, author George Dorn has gathered the finest wit and wisdom on the topic of aging that the male of the species has to offer. Hey, however you look at it, that has to put it somewhere in the top two. With well over fifteen hundred entries, you're sure to find it an illuminating and amusing read. So what are you waiting for? In the words of Hillel the Elder, "... if not now, when?"
