Each of the 307 communities listed in the Guide has been thoroughly researched for accurate, updated, practical information, helpful for the kosher traveler before he starts out to an unknown destination. The “Kosher Travel Guide 2015”, a project of Kashrus Magazine (since 1980, the “Periodical For The Kosher Consumer”), includes what to see, where to stay, where to eat and where to shop in each community. Each listing includes restaurants, takeout food and kosher departments in supermarkets in or near that community, as well as information about the local kosher certifying agency. Before leaving, it is important to check on the kosher standards of the various communities, as kosher standards vary across the United States and across the world. Consult your rabbi for guidance. The kosher traveler also has other needs, such as synagogues for daily and Sabbath prayers, Torah classes, mikvaos, and eruvim. All that information, including contact people, telephone numbers, addresses, online information and email addresses, can be found in the Guide. But, the kosher traveler wants even more. How about hospitality for the Sabbath, help with relocating, seasonal programming and a host of other needs? The “Kosher Travel Guide 2015” is 138 pages packed with all this information.
