Double or Nothing...

When Grand Illusions hired a lookalike to portray legendary rocker Brennan Richards at a concert, owner Catherine Grand was thinking only good things for her company's future. But when the reclusive Irish rocker showed up on her doorstep, wearing biker regalia and the sexiest smile she had ever seen, everything changed. Brennan was charismatic – even for a living legend - but the smile faded when he made it clear they were adversaries. Brennan threatened to sue her unless Catherine abandoned the contract for the concert and fired the actor portraying him.

Catherine understood how unsettling an anonymous threat Brennan had received could be, she had received a couple herself, but if the show didn't go on, Grand Illusions could go bankrupt.

Joining uneasy forces, Catherine and Brennan donned disguises to elude the psychopath who had forced Brennan into early retirement ten years ago, while trying to find out his identity. But the wily villain had a few masks of his own, along with a couple of bombs and a rifle that had the two in its scope. Inside the camouflage of enchanted Hollywood, it often seemed as if no one was what they claimed and nothing was real, except for the growing passion between Brennan and Catherine...and the danger they had to overcome.
