Part memoir, part manifesto, Writings of a Deliberate Agrarian is an introduction to the Christian-agrarian worldview. It is a Biblically-based, contra-industrial call for cultural reformation through the restoration of productive family economies, working within the natural order of God's creation.

Did God intend for His people to live a simplified rural lifestyle? Are Christian families nurtured best and strengthened most within the agrarian paradigm? Does the fruit of the spirit grow best within Christian agrarianism? Prepare to have your modern Christian suppositions challenged.
