New, and a very immaculate New, at that. See scans and description. New York: Metro Books, 2012. Introduction by David Allen Sibley. Thick, tall, hefty full Folio size; illustrated jacket, forest green cloth boards with gilt imprinting on front cover and spine, rather gorgeously executed marbled endpapers, 5 (introduction) + 435 (plates) pp. Brand spankin' new, and without flaw. See scans. Never perused but for description and scanning, then placed in archival storage. A superb new binding and edition of Audubon's famous 1827 to 1838 publication of 435 large, dramatic bird prints. Those very rare originals were double elephant folio size - about 3' tall. While this edition is not that, size-wise, it is an impressive handful at full folio size. No nonsense here, either: a brief, knowledgeable introduction by David Sibley, then all 435 of Audubon's prints, beautifully executed. Not just for the ornithologist or bird-watcher - this one is for the collector of fine bindings, as well. Shipped in a new, sturdy, protective box, of course; no bag for this one. Hefty book; international shipping may involve an extra shipping charge. LT24
