Eyes in Gaza Mads Gilbert, Erik Fosse

During the course of Israel's twenty-two-day military offensive in 2009 on the Gaza Strip 1,300, mostly civilian, Palestinians were killed, with many thousands more injured. Once again, the Palestinian Community lay in ruins. Despite the Israeli authorities' attempt to shut out aid workers and the media from the conflict zone, NORWAC (the Norwegian Aid Committee) succeeded in getting some of its envoys into the heart of Gaza City, including two doctors: Mads Gilbert and Erik Fosse. For some time, the two were the only Western eyewitnesses in Gaza. This book is an account of their experience during sixteen harrowing days from 27 December 2008 to 12 January 2009. Each chapter covers just one day, as the reader follows the doctors' journey through the ravaged city, treating local Palestinians and hearing their stories. Hailed by the influential Norwegian newspaper Klassekampen as 'the best book of 2009', this shocking yet sober account sheds much-needed light on this recent chapter of one of the most prolonged and complex conflicts of our time.

As people who live in the particular modest era should be upgrade about what going on or facts even knowledge to make all of them keep up with the era which can be always change and advance. Some of you maybe will probably update themselves by reading books. It is a good choice for you personally but the problems coming to you is you don't know which one you should start with. This Eyes in Gaza is our recommendation to cause you to keep up with the world. Why, because book serves what you want and wish in this era.

Cynthia Cisneros:

Nowadays reading books become more than want or need but also get a life style. This reading addiction give you lot of advantages. The advantages you got of course the knowledge the rest of the information inside the book that improve your knowledge and information. The information you get based on what kind of guide you read, if you want attract knowledge just go with education books but if you want truly feel happy read one together with theme for entertaining for instance comic or novel. The actual Eyes in Gaza is kind of reserve which is giving the reader capricious experience.
