David Wright, co-author of the bestselling horror and sci-fi Yesterday's Gone series

Overview:

A generation after manned space exploration provides hope to those on our dying planet, scientists discover a method for sending human DNA into the far reaches of the universe and the distant past. But only Americans with superior genes and a clean criminal record qualify. A government agency, Colony, creates the Lottery to sort through the masses, hoping to find those worthy of populating other planets to save humanity. But the system is flawed and one wicked man infiltrates Colony. He plans to destroy humanity from the inside out.
