Each step gets him closer to greatness . . . or disaster.

Lauer Middle School has a super-secret society—The Legend. No one knows who is in it. Or how they pull off the spectacular school-wide events. Seventh grader Travis Raines may be about to find out. A mysterious message appears in his locker. You have been chosen, it says. And it gives him a mind-bending puzzle to solve and a challenge. Travis could become legendary. If he completes all the tasks—and stays out of trouble. The assistant principal has her eye on him. So do his parents. And Travis isn't very good at staying out of trouble.

And then there's the biggest puzzle of all: What if the messages aren't from The Legend? Could someone want to take Travis down?

As a student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their passion. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this The Seventh Level can make you experience more interested to read.
