Dorothea Trudel: The Prayer of Faith Dorothea Trudel

With an introduction by physician Charles Cullis, this compact volume relates the wonderfully blessed story of Miss Trudel: her early life, dedication to prayer, and the many instances of both physical and spiritual healing as she ministered in the small Swiss town of Mannedorf. Her influence went far beyond this little village, however, as healing ministries were started around Europe and in America based on the methods and model of that laid down in Mannedorf.

Have your faith strengthened as you read about how she overcame difficulties, cured incurable diseases, and brought hundreds to the feet of Jesus solely through prayer and all for the honor and glory of the God she served.
