For My Daughter on Her Wedding Day: A Keepsake Journal From Mother to Daughter Hyperion

A new bride receives many presents, but few keepsakes. This elegant journal and scrapbook offers mothers the chance to preserve and pass on her own memories, thoughts, dreams, and experiences to her daughter on her wedding day--truly one of life's most important events. By filling in answers to such prompts as "I've never been more proud of you as when...", "I would like to be the kind of mother-in-law who..." and "If I had my wedding to do over again I would..." any mother can pass on reflections, wisdom, and advice to her daughter. In addition, there is ample space for pasting in old photographs, certificates, and letters to create a meaningful scrapbook more precious than any gift purchased through a registry.
