Thank you, Cathe Jones, author. ----- Godless Grief is the first book for Atheists that discusses all forms of loss and grief, and offers pragmatic advice for issues relating to loss. Although this book is written from an Atheist perspective, for Agnostics, Atheists, and those who embrace Freethought, it doesn't exclude anyone from the concepts of sharing loss. Grief knows no limits of religion, culture, or time. Dr. Richard Dawkins, James Randi, and Margaret Downey give their thoughts on loss and grief, in this piece, and Atheists from many backgrounds help fill out the anecdotal materials within. It is not, nor does it attempt to be, a book about religious debate, and rather takes on the concepts of grief from that of the loss of a pet, to limb, to job, to life, as equally valued.
