Keith Kelley doesn't normally take kindly to strangers, but his flashy new neighbor has long legs, lips made for kissing and might prove too much temptation for a boy hiding his sexuality in rural Idaho. Unfortunately, between working his mom's goat ranch and land disputes with his wealthy father, Keith has enough problems. He doesn't need the best sex of his life threatening to expose all his secrets.

Real estate developer Max Levin vows to turn the one-stoplight town of Pookataw Valley into a vacation destination...and then leave before the dust clears. With his next assignment in five months, Max shouldn't start loving the quaint little town—the ranchland, the mountains, even the goats. If only Max could stop thinking about his sexy neighbor and the time they shared in the front seat of Keith's truck. Because he especially shouldn't fall in love with a guy who can't openly love him back.

In a town the size of Pookataw Valley, nothing stays secret for long. If Keith wants to hold onto his birthright, he'll have to fight for his land and his pride. Most of all, he'll have to fight for Max before he slips through Keith's fingers.

Warning: contains angry parents, horny ranchers and snarky city boys just asking to be hogtied.
