Bear Shifter Romance

Married to a rich and handsome businessman and spending most of her days in their luxurious dwelling, Josie has but one problem in her life: a profound feeling of solitude. Her husband George's business trips and hunting excursions have over time built a rather sturdy wall between the two spouses.

For this reason alone, Josie agrees to accompany her husband and his friends on their next hunting trip, hoping it would help them break their barriers. Little does she know that this excursion is about to change all of their lives forever, for within the remote wilderness roams a shape-shifting bear man.

Angered by this intrusion into his territory, the were-beast kidnaps Josie, but any plans he might have had quickly become null and void when the two fall in love. Enraptured by their passion for each other, they try to elope, all while being pursued by George's hunting party.
