Aisne 1918 (Battleground Books: WWI) David Blanchard

This battlefield guide and history will focus mainly on the events of attack that fell on the British sector of the front between the 27th – 1st June 1918, although the offensive which also befell the French forces will not be totally neglected. This area had been a French held sector since 1915 and the French had fought one of its major engagements of the war here in 1917, the ill-fated Nivelle Offensive. French monuments and cemeteries dominate the landscape. The British were also here in 1914, and they too have left reminders of their relative brief presence. However, the actions fought here early in the war tend to be found mainly to the west of the sector.

The battlefield of May 1918 scales the heights of the Chemin des Dames ridge, along the Califorme Plateau and descends to afforested valley of the Aisne river and canal. The retreat of the British forces during the course of the first day and in following days extends further south almost to the Marne and takes in part of the Champagne region.
