Burying the Secret: The Road to Ruin Is Paved with Books about the Law of Attraction Carol Rutter

A prolific writer of published articles, Carol Rutter provides the reader with an especially articulate, thoughtful, and thought-provoking discussion of . . . the law of attraction as it relates to relationships and other Universal laws and principles in Burying the Secret.

Drawing upon more than 300 books in the fields of mysticism, psychology, Eastern philosophy, and metaphysics, Carol has compiled and written a particularly reader-friendly and occasionally iconoclastic self-help manual based on key influences that impinge upon the development of the human soul. Among these fundamentals are the learning of lessons, voluntary acts of redemption, sacrifice, and free will.

A seminal work founded upon truly impressive research that spanned a decade, Burying the Secret is very highly recommended for non-specialist general readers with an interest in spirituality, self-improvement, and metaphysics. ---Susan Bethany, Midwest Book Review

Burying the Secret indicts The Secret for its refusal to acknowledge that unanswered prayers are the norm and for its unfathomable premise: The law of attraction always produces dramatic results. In great detail, this book also demonstrates that the law of attraction only works in one of two ways:

First, it may consistently produce manifestations for trivial matters, such as getting great tickets to a popular concert or productive bargain hunting. Second, the law of attraction initially incites a burst of energy that may generate spectacular results at first. However, this reservoir of energy is soon depleted, and stagnation (or even a reversal of fortune) persists for a long time afterwards.

This award-winning book is dedicated to everyone whose dreams and aspirations have been postponed indefinitely by life's inevitable detours.

We fear our own untapped power more than we hate dragging around such an enormous weight, even if our spirit has become as disfigured as Quasimoto's spine. - Burying the Secret

This book's review history shows curious entries. At the top of this page, we feature a Midwest Book Review critique. Burying the Secret was also honored by glowing critiques from two other Midwest Book Review writers within a three-month span. To top that off, two independent Reader Views reviewers awarded the book five stars on Amazon.

Look for "Search Inside" and at least nine customer reviews in Amazon's regular listing of Burying the Secret. As a preview, here are some excerpts:

. . . One idea can inspire an individual to critically examine beliefs and behavior and make a change. There were many such ideas in this book. I received plenty of helpful inspiration and I can enthusiastically recommend this book. John F. Temmerman

. . .The 10-page exercise at the back of the book is worth the price alone. --- Janet Riehl

. . . In [Burying the Secret.] you discover why bad things happen to good people and you see good things happening to bad people . . .

After reading, "Burying the Secret," I feel like I have a greater understanding of how things really work. --- Paige Lovitt

I don't think Carol left anything out when she wrote this book because she certainly dispelled any questioning thoughts I had [about The Secret]. She writes with vigor, understanding, and truth. I encourage anyone wanting more understanding to read this book. I promise, you will be enlightened and you will be able to move on, knowing The Law of Attraction does work, IF there is Karmic flow involved. --- Irene Watson, founder and managing editor of Reader Views

This book is also available in the Kindle format.
