Every few years, the Seiso Academy music competition offers students fame, fortune...and love? Kahoko was content to be a normal girl, but a musical fairy and a magic violin suddenly thrust her into the fast-paced, cutthroat world of the Seiso Academy Music Competition! All Kahoko once worried about was forgetting to do her homework. But now she's the owner of a magical violin and up against five gorgeous musical geniuses in the school's most important musical competition--and she's never played an instrument before in her life!

Reads R to L (Japanese Style). Every few years, the Seiso Academy music competition offers students fame, fortune...and love? Kahoko was content to be a normal girl, but a musical fairy and a magic violin suddenly thrust her into the fast-paced, cutthroat world of the Seiso Academy Music Competition! All Kahoko once worried about was forgetting to do her homework. But now she's the owner of a magical violin and up against five gorgeous musical geniuses in the school's most important musical competition--and she's never played an instrument before in her life!

When Seisou Academy chose two students to attend an all-star music camp, Kahoko wasn't one of the lucky ones--but that didn't stop her! Working as a janitor on the camp grounds isn't exactly glamorous, but it's the only way to pursue her dream of mastering the violin. But can she really measure up to the ultra-elite musicians at the camp? And what's the story behind Aoi, the weird (but handsome) new guy who seems to know everything about her?
