REVISED AND FULLY UPDATED FOR 2014.

On 17th January 2014, Buckingham Palace announced that Mrs Zara Anne Elizabeth Tindall, better known as just Zara Phillips, had given birth to a baby girl weighing 7lbs 12oz. In this fully revised and updated biography, Brian Hoey paints a revealing portrait of Zara, the Queen's oldest granddaughter. From her Sports Personality of the Year award in 2006 through to her marriage to former England rugby captain Mike Tindall in 2011, her silver medal at the London Olympics in 2012, and the birth of her first daughter in 2014, this is an insightful, comprehensive and entertaining story of one of Britain's favourite Royals.

Brian Hoey has been a writer and broadcaster for over 40 years.

He secured the first ever TV interview with the Queen's daughter, Princess Anne, and was later to become her official biographer. He collaborated with NBC's Barbara Walters to cover the Investiture of Prince Charles as Prince of Wales in 1969, and subsequently covered many Royal events, including the wedding of Charles and Diana in 1981, and was a commentator at Princess Diana's funeral in 1997.

Brian has written over 25 books, many of them about the British Royal Family given his extensive access. They have all been serialized in leading international newspapers. He has also interviewed a wealth of celebrities ranging from the Hollywood greats to British national treasures and residents of the Oval Office.
